Thank you to Ken Egawa!

We want to take this opportunity to thank Ken Egawa. Over the past 9 years, Ken has served as LWEA Vice President, and both Primary and Intermediate Reps to the LWEA Executive Committee.

Ken plans to concentrate on work and enjoying life. He also plans to serve as a building rep for 2017-18.

We appreciate the many hours that Ken has volunteered for the Association and his dedication to being an advocate for our members.

Benefits Fair – August 29

Put it on your calendar - the annual Benefits Fair will be held on Tuesday, August 29 from 1-6 PM at the Resource Center. Plan to attend to get all of the information you need to make good decisions about your medical coverage and more.

Shared leave needed for three!

We have three people in need of additional sick leave - please take a moment to fill out a form before you leave for the summer.

- Cass Avery, former Rose Hill Elementary teacher currently on leave, is dealing with brain cancer and needs to stay in a "pay status" by using sick leave for his medical benefits.
- Willma Fisher, para-educator in the RHS Transition Program, is recovering from a car accident and needs additional time at home to heal.
- Fernando Gomes, RHS custodian, will need to be out most of the summer following full-knee replacement surgery on June 26.

Please send your completed form to HR - your help will really be appreciated!

Seattle Pride Parade

WEA will be marching again in this year's Seattle Pride Parade on Sunday, June 25, and you are invited to participate. If you're interested, please RSVP through this link.

Mariners tickets

It's Union Solidarity Night at Safeco Field and tickets for the July 7 game versus Oakland Athletics at 7:10 PM are discounted for union members. Pricing: $18 View Level and $28 Main Level. Use this link to get more information and to purchase tickets.

Join us for a rally - June 22!

Join Washington's Paramount Duty and All In For Action coalitions for a rally in Kirkland's Heritage Park (111 Waverly Way, at the intersection of Market St. and Waverly) at 4 PM on Thursday, June 22. Hear from parents, educators, and faith leaders about the impacts of Senate Republicans' budget and the funding for the McCleary decision.

Don't forget to do this!

The deadline to request the carryover of all or part of your unused Annual leave is June 30. Send your request to leave@lwsd.org and indicate the number of days to carry over (keep a copy of the e-mail and auto-response for your records).

If you don't contact the District, all unused days will be cashed out and issued to you in your August paycheck.

ELL: Culture, Equity & Language Training

It's not too late to take a professional development course and get clock hours this summer. WEA will offer two courses in August to support and assist educators in understanding how to apply the best research-based English Language Learners (ELL), culture and equity practices in the classroom.

ELL: Culture, Equity and Language Training for Closing the Achievement Gap, Aug. 8-10, East Wenatchee

This intensive, 3-day course explores how to apply research-based, classroom-focused language acquisition, culture and equity practices to close the achievement gap for all students who are English Language Learners. 21 clock hours. Get more details and register for this course.

ELL: Culture and Equity, Aug. 16-17, Federal Way

This is a condensed two-day training where participants, upon completion of course, will be able to apply their new lens of ELL strategies into their classrooms. 14 clock hours. Get more details and register here.
