Classified School Employees Week

March 12-16

Please join us in thanking the classified staff in your building who work so hard to keep LWSD schools running so well!

Sick leave is needed now!

Elizabeth Miles, library media specialist at Dickinson, is recovering from a second surgery in a month and is in for a long recovery. She has no sick leave remaining and really needs help.

If you have sick leave you can share, please donate as soon as possible. Donation forms can be found in your building – check with your office manager.

Grants for music and arts programs

California Casualty has introduced a new grant program to benefit public school music and arts programs. K-12 schools in Washington can apply for up to a $500 grant. The deadline for applications is June 30, 2018, with grants awarded in September 2018.

California Casualty (the NEA endorsed NEA Home & Auto Insurance) has partnered with education associations for nearly 70 years and understand the importance of music and arts education for children. Numerous studies have concluded that sharing a love of the arts enhances students' brain development, creativity, classroom involvement, and has also been shown to reduce disciplinary issues and dropout rates.

Awards are $100, $250, or $500 (project or needs based).

Grants can be awarded for a variety of projects or needs – Choir, Band, Dance, Film, Theater, Computer Graphics, any K-12 NEA member who is using a form of art or music in their lesson, and more.

Please visit the website and enter for your grant application.

Bob Jameyson, former LWSD teacher, passed away this last Thanksgiving from liver cancer. He is survived by his wife and three adult children.

Bob started his career in LWSD in 1994 at Rose Hill Junior High and moved from Storefront (now called Transition Academy), LWHS, and Northstar. In 2012, he left our district to move to another district and was still working at Ballard High School in Seattle at the time of his death. Bob will be remembered by his big heart and caring for kids.
