

Lake Washington Education Association

Newbie Nights

A professional development series for newer teachers

Do you wake up in the middle of the night worried about how to engage that reluctant learner or handle a difficult parent? Do you often wonder if you'll ever not be so tired? Or how on earth you are ever supposed to get everything done with the limited amount of time in the day? Then this series of professional development opportunities is just for you.

LWEA is sponsoring 6 evening sessions designed specifically for teachers with 6 or fewer years of teaching experience.

We'll provide you with hospitality, dinner, and an opportunity to hear from experts on various topics as they share strategies for surviving your first few years in the classroom.

Please join us in connecting and collaborating with others new to the profession. Find out how LWEA, WEA, and NEA can help support you in your profession.

April 27, 2017

4:30 - 7:00 PM

Pathways To Certification

Navigating the Certification Path: You have your residency certificate but now you need to find the right path for you to move onto your professional certification. We'll have experts who will work with you to unravel the options that you have to choose from.

Look for other professional development opportunities in the Update and on the LWEA website (lakewashingtonea.org).

Lake Washington
Education Association
10604 NE 38th Place, Ste 212
Kirkland, WA 98033

Earn clock hours or credit while you attend these sessions!

Clock hours will be provided to all LWEA and WEA members who attend at least two sessions. Individuals interested and committed to at least four sessions can receive one college credit through Seattle Pacific University. More information will be available at each session.

To register: Contact Sheila Hagerman in the LWEA office by e-mail (shhagerman@lwsd.org).